Letter from the Chamberlain University President

Dear Chamberlain Graduates,

On behalf of the entire faculty and staff, it is my great pleasure to congratulate each one of you on your graduation. The spirit of community has never been stronger as we come together to honor the graduation of the Class of 2020 and to confer your hard-earned degrees.

Many thanks to the family and friends who have been your biggest supporters during your time at Chamberlain. We know how invaluable their encouragement has been in furthering your education and reaching your goals and dreams.

We sincerely wish you all the best in your career and want you to be proud of your connection with Chamberlain University. It has been an honor to partner with you on your journey toward becoming an extraordinary healthcare professional. We hope that we have instilled a sense of pride in your profession, a desire for lifelong learning and a commitment to caring along the way.

Congratulations on this tremendous milestone and thank you for your dedication to transforming healthcare in our local and global communities.

Warm regards,

Karen Cox, PhD, RN, FACHE, FAAN

The various gowns and hoods preserve the style of their medieval origin and indicate, by color and design, the degree and the institution by which the degree is conferred. Black is the basic color for gowns in the United States. The associate and bachelor's gowns are distinguished by their long, open sleeves; the master's, by its closed, slitted sleeves; and the doctorate, by its full sleeves trimmed with banks of velvet. The velvet on a doctorate gown may be black or a color denoting the field in which the degree is earned. A different cap can also be worn. An eight-sided velvet tam with a shorter, wider tassel depicts the doctorate degree. Academic hoods vary in length according to the degree and are lined with the colors of the institution by which the degree is conferred. The yoke of the hood is edged in a color that indicates the field in which the degree is taken.

A blue and green cord worn over the neck is recognition of a recipient who has shown academic achievement and a dedicated desire to succeed. The cords represent commitment and perseverance in overcoming obstacles on the path to completing their degree. A minimum grade point average of 3.0 or higher must have been maintained to receive this scholarship award. The Empower Scholarship Fund Board of Directors and donors send their sincere congratulations to these remarkable graduates, and wish them continued success in their future endeavors.

The History of Chamberlain University

The Deaconess tradition began in 19th century Europe. Theodore Fliedner of Kaiserswerth, Germany, established the first Deaconess Home and Hospital in 1836. The word deaconess means “one who is devoted to service.” Young, unmarried women were invited to join in the Deaconess Sisterhood to assist Fliedner with his mission. In 1851, Florence Nightingale, the founder of modern nursing, spent three months in Kaiserswerth training as a nurse for the sick.

In 1889, an Evangelical pastor concerned about the lack of healthcare in the St. Louis area proposed establishing healthcare services based on the Kaiserswerth model. On March 18, 1889, 60 men and 10 women became the first members of the Evangelical Deaconess Society of St. Louis.

The first Deaconess Home and Hospital was established near Union Station in 1889.

The following year, the School for Deaconesses was founded. Within a short period of time, the school established itself as a leader in nursing education. More than 500 Deaconess Sisters were consecrated to lifelong service.

In 1943, Deaconess School of Nursing began admitting lay students. By retaining the quality of care associated with the Deaconess Sisters, these registered nurses have gone on to hold prestigious positions both locally and nationally.

In 1983, Deaconess transitioned from a school of nursing to a college and began offering a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) degree. The Associate Degree in Nursing program designed for Licensed Practical Nurses (LPNs) graduated its first class in December 1990.

At the start of the 21st century, Deaconess College of Nursing entered the world of online education. In the fall of 2000, a new option was initiated to allow registered nurses to earn their bachelor’s degree through online courses. In 2001, the College received approval to establish an online option for LPNs to earn an associate degree.

In March 2005, Adtalem Global Education acquired Deaconess. A term of the acquisition agreement required Adtalem to change the name of the school. The chosen name, Chamberlain, is derived from the Middle English word “chamberlein,” which means “chief steward” – in recognition of the critical role of the nurse as the central steward and coordinator of patient care and the faculty and staff of Chamberlain College of Nursing as the chief stewards of their students’ education.

Chamberlain College of Nursing continues to innovate and expand nursing education. In 2009, Chamberlain began offering the Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) degree program, and, in 2013, began offering the Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) degree program, helping nursing professionals advance their education and enhance their nursing careers. Graduate certificate programs in Nursing Education and Nursing Informatics were launched in 2012.

In 2017, Chamberlain broadened its reach in healthcare education through the establishment of Chamberlain University and the launch of a Master of Public Health (MPH) degree program within a new College of Health Professions.

Chamberlain University builds upon the legacy of Deaconess and Chamberlain College of Nursing and fulfills a vision of extending the organization’s mission to educate, empower and embolden diverse healthcare professionals who advance the health of people, families, communities and nations.

Chamberlain University Degree Programs & Options

College of Nursing

For more than 130 years, Chamberlain University's College of Nursing has been at the forefront of excellence in nursing education. With over 20 campuses nationwide and online nursing programs, we strive to prepare clinically proficient nursing professionals while fostering personal growth, career mobility, community service and leadership. At Chamberlain, we are personally invested in the success of our students and their nursing careers.

Undergraduate – Pre-Licensure Nursing Program

Bachelor of Science in Nursing Degree

The Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) degree program is a three-year*, full-time program offered on-site. This program incorporates general education and nursing coursework in a program of study that provides the knowledge and skills necessary for a lifetime of professional and personal growth. The emphasis on clinical experience, supported by theory from nursing and related disciplines, is the hallmark of the BSN curriculum at Chamberlain. Theoretical and clinical nursing courses, nursing research and cultural-diversity courses provide the professional education base for this degree. The BSN program consists of a minimum of 122** credit hours: 56 general education credits and 66 nursing major credits**.

Post-Licensure Options

RN to BSN Option

Chamberlain's RN to BSN option allows registered nurses nationwide to advance their careers by earning a BSN degree online in as few as three semesters***. The program offers the flexibility of online learning, a focus on core concepts applicable to professional nurses and respect for previous work experience – all of which are important to nurses focused on advancing their careers while continuing to treat patients and do the work they love.

RN-BSN to MSN Option

In the RN-BSN to MSN option, eligible RN students completing their BSN degree at Chamberlain may apply for admission to the MSN program prior to completing their BSN degree. Students are able to complete their BSN degree while enrolled in the MSN program by taking selected MSN courses in place of two required BSN nursing courses. The MSN courses offer more focused, higher level content than the corresponding BSN courses. Students opting for this dual enrollment have the option at any time of completing the final two courses in the BSN curriculum and exiting the program with a BSN degree.

NOTE: Program/program option availability varies by state/location.

* The on-site Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) degree program can be completed in three years of year-round study instead of the typical four years with summers off.

** 126 credit hours (56 general education; 70 nursing) for students attending a California campus. 129 credit hours (60 general education; 69 nursing) for Ohio campus students enrolled prior to May 2016 and students attending a North Carolina campus. All other students enrolled prior to May 2016 will complete between 122 and 129 credit hours (66-69 nursing), depending on progression through the curriculum.

*** With year-round, full-time enrollment.

Post-Licensure and Graduate Programs

Master of Science in Nursing Degree

The Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) degree program is a post-baccalaureate professional degree program designed to prepare nurses for expanding their roles in healthcare and enhancing opportunities for professional advancement. The minimum number of credit hours required to graduate and earn a Master of Science in Nursing degree is 36 semester credit hours. Students select one of five specialty tracks: Educator, Executive, Family Nurse Practitioner, Healthcare Policy or Informatics. A student may expect to complete the program in two to two-and-a-half years of full-time study.

Nursing Certificates

Chamberlain Nursing Certificate Programs are designed to provide a pathway into beginning advanced practice for nurses who already have a baccalaureate degree. In addition, they provide a pathway into new areas of specialization for nurses who already have a master's degree in nursing. Chamberlain Certificate Programs are responsive to the call for nurses to be prepared in content areas critical to the future of the profession. Students in the Post-Baccalaureate Leadership Foundations Certificate program choose to complete courses currently provided in Chamberlain's Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) degree program. Students in Chamberlain's Graduate Certificate programs may choose from five areas of specialization, including: Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP), Healthcare Policy, Nursing Education, Nursing Informatics and Nursing Leadership. These students would complete the corresponding specialty track courses currently provided in the MSN degree program. National certification exams are available to graduates in select specialties. Some certificate programs are available with or without a practicum.

Doctor of Nursing Practice Degree

Chamberlain's Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) degree program is practice focused to prepare graduates to analyze, synthesize and apply scientific reasoning at the highest levels to evaluate, plan, design, implement, evaluate and improve care and outcomes. DNP graduates are prepared to lead teams of intra- and inter-professional colleagues, care for vulnerable, culturally-diverse populations and assume the role of a transformational leader in a complex healthcare delivery system.

College of Health Professions

Master of Public Health (MPH) Degree

The MPH degree program is a generalist graduate degree designed to prepare graduates to become public health practitioners who work with communities and populations throughout the world to promote healthy living and prevent community health problems such as disease, poverty, health access disparities and violence. The coursework is interdisciplinary and draws on systems thinking knowledge and skills from a variety of disciplines.

Public Health Certificate Programs

Chamberlain Public Health Certificate Programs are designed for individuals with a Bachelor's degree who are interested in acquiring a specialized set of skills or continuing a graduate education. These certificates can be a means for individuals employed in the field of public health to continue their professional educational needs or can act as a bridge to a graduate program. Students have the option of choosing from three Post-Baccalaureate Certificate options: Epidemiology, Global Health (with or without fieldwork) or Public Health Generalist.

NOTE: Program/program option availability varies by state/location.

Joshua C. Francis, PhD, M.A.

Dean, General Education

Dr. Joshua C. Francis is the Dean of the General Education program which provides foundational coursework for all undergraduate programs at Chamberlain University. Dr. Francis specializes in academic program development and review, developing programmatic assessment systems, and leading regional and specialized accreditation processes. He brings more than 10 years of academic leadership experience to his role at the university. In addition to his role in academic leadership, Dr. Francis is an active scholar in the role of education in a democratic society, educational policy, and institutional accreditation.

Dr. Francis started his career in higher education as a faculty member at Defiance College in Defiance, Ohio. He was later promoted to Department Chair and Program Director for the Education Department. Dr. Francis was then asked to also assume the position of Director of Assessment for the college, working closely with the Vice President for Academic Affairs and the institution's HLC Liaison. In this capacity, he served as a member of the HLC steering committee, worked with each program director to review and update their program outcomes, led the revision of the institution's general education outcomes, and formalized the institution's and program report and program review processes.

Dr. Francis was then offered the opportunity to become the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Indiana Tech in Fort Wayne, Indiana. While at Indiana Tech, he led several major projects. One of the larger projects he led was a year-long initiative to rename the college from its original name of general studies to arts and sciences, led the development of new programs in the health sciences, and supervised the construction of new, state-of-the-art laboratory facilities. During his last year at Indiana Tech, Dr. Francis served as acting Vice-President for Academic Affairs.

Dr. Francis holds undergraduate degrees in religion and ministry and mathematics from Defiance College, a masters degree in mathematics education from Defiance College, and a Ph.D. in Theory and Social Foundations: Sociology of Education from the University of Toledo.

Candice Phillips, PhD, RN, APRN, CNM, CNE

Dean, Curriculum and Instruction Post-Licensure College of Nursing

Dr. Candice Phillips earned her Doctor of Philosophy at Pacifica Graduate Institute, her Post-Master's Nurse-Midwifery Certificate at Frontier University, and her Master of Science in Nursing from Case Western Reserve University. She is an Advanced Practice Registered Nurse and board certified in Nurse-Midwifery. She also has earned a Bachelor of Arts in sociology as well as a diploma in nursing. Dr. Phillips has publications in academic nursing leadership, faculty development, and education. Her work has received recognition through national and international presentations and consultations. Dr. Phillips has over 20 years of service as an academic nurse leader. Presently, Dr. Phillips is the dean of curriculum and instruction for post-licensure and graduate programs at Chamberlain University.
